Cover letter

Dear Flatbox Solutions Dealer,

Welcome to Flatbox Solutions' in-house marketing program, designed to help you scale, grow, and compete confidently in your market. As a Flatbox Solutions dealer, you gain direct access to a fully integrated marketing team—Casa Media House Inc.—built to support your business at every stage of growth.

Casa Media House serves as Flatbox Solutions' official in-house marketing partner, delivering professional, data-driven marketing programs without the complexity of building an internal department. Headquartered in Toronto, Canada, our team supports dealer growth across Canada, the United States, and Europe, providing consistent strategy, execution, and performance visibility across all regions.

Our role is simple: to generate demand, increase visibility, and convert opportunities into measurable results. Dealers gain access to a complete suite of marketing services including branding and creative, website development, SEO, Google and social advertising, social media marketing, CRM and automations, mobile web applications, and executive-level reporting—each delivered using an empirical, scalable approach focused on clarity and accountability.

By integrating Casa Media House directly into the Flatbox Solutions ecosystem, dealers benefit from a dedicated marketing team aligned with Flatbox's brand, products, and growth objectives. This structure allows you to focus on sales and operations while we manage the strategy, execution, and reporting behind your marketing efforts.

We look forward to supporting your continued growth as a Flatbox Solutions dealer.

Welcome to the Flatbox Solutions marketing team.

Overview

In-House Marketing Advantage

Casa Media House is the official in-house marketing partner for Flatbox Solutions, providing dealers with a fully integrated digital marketing team from day one. Headquartered in Toronto, Canada, Casa Media House delivers proven marketing programs across Canada, the United States, and Europe, supporting dealer growth at both local and regional levels.

The partnership covers the full spectrum of modern digital marketing services, including branding and creative, website development, SEO, Google and social advertising, social media marketing, CRM and automations, mobile web applications, and performance analytics. All strategies are executed using a data-driven, empirical approach focused on measurable outcomes and long-term scalability.

Flatbox Solutions dealers benefit from executive-level reporting and modern performance dashboards, providing clear visibility into advertising spend, lead generation, and campaign performance across all services. This transparency ensures accountability, informed decision-making, and confidence in every marketing investment.

By integrating Casa Media House directly into the Flatbox Solutions ecosystem, dealers gain the power of a full-service marketing department without the cost, complexity, or risk of building one internally—allowing them to focus on sales, operations, and growth.
